Cap. 36. Of granting.

GRANTING is when we iestlinglie admit of anie speach or argument.

Virg. Aen. 10 Italiam petijt satis authoribus: esto.
Aen 7. Flectere si nequeo superos, Acheronta monebo.
Non dabitur regni (esto) prohibere Latinis:
At trahere, atque moras tantis licet addere rebus.

Sir Philip Sydney. §. Philanax.

But yet euen of fauour, let vs grant him thus much more, as to fancie, that in these foretold things, fortune might bee a great actor, perchance to an euill ende, yet to a lesse euill ende, all these intangled deuises were intended. But I beseech your Lady-ship, my Lady Timopirus, tell me what excuse can you finde for the chaunging of your lodging with the Dutchesse, that ve-rie instant she was to finish her execrable practise? how can you cloake the lending of your cloake vnto her? was all that by chaunce too?
