

HENRY THE EYGHTE BY
 THE GRACE OF GOD KYNG OF Englands, France, and Irelande, defendour of the faythe, and in earthe of the churche of Englands and also of Irelande supreme head, vnto all his saythfull and louyng subiectes sendeth gretyng.

Like as in the tyme
 of darknes and ignorance, fyndyng our people seduced & dra-
 wen frome the truthe
 by hypocryse and superstition: we by the helpe of god and his worde, haue trauayled to purge and clense our realme from the apperaunt enozymities of the same, wherin by openyng of goddis truthe, with setting furth and publy-shinge of the scriptures, our laboures (thankes be to god) haue not ben void and frustrate: So nowe perceyvyng, that in the tyme of knowledge, the de-uyll (who ceaseth not in all tymes to bere the world) hath attempted to returne agayn (as the parable in the gospelle sheweth) into the house purged and clensed, accompanied with seuen
 A ii worse

THE TABLE.

- emperour, that the Mauritains wold conquere great Bytayne. Cap. xxii.
- What theemperour sated to the of his court in escheuynge idelnesse. Ca. xxiii.
- Of the peryllous liuyng of them that haunt the court continually. Ca. xxiiii.
- Howe theemperour wold haue them of his courte to lyue. Cap. xxv.
- Of a meruaylouse & fearefull monster that was sene in Sicile, and of his wrytynges. Cap. xxvi.
- What befell to a cytesyn of Rome in the tyme of this emperour Marcus.
Cap. xxvii.
- Of a great pestilence that was in Italy in this emperours tyme. Ca. xxviii.
- Howe Marcus aunswered his phili-stions that wold haue him leaue his study. Cap. xxix.
- Howe science ought to bee in pry-nces. Cap. xxx.
- What a byllayne sated to the Senators of Rome in the presence of the emperour. Cap. xxxi.
- Of diuerse other thynges that the bil-
lain sated before the senate. cap. xxxii.
- Howe theemperour desyzed the welthy of his people, and the people his wealthe. Cap. xxxiii.
Howe

T. BERTHELET

Fig. 7a. 62 TEXTURA (Greg 8) on a 72 body with s¹, two l's.
 95 b TEXTURA (Greg 1) with s².
 71 TEXTURA (Greg 13) with s², w^{5b},

Anecessary doctrine and erudition for any christen men. 1543. S.T.C. 5168.

b. 73 TEXTURA with s³, w^{5d}, w¹³, w^{1b} and a plain H.
 Guevara, A. de. The golden boke of Marcus Aurelius. 1559. S.T.C. 12444.

(' In the hous of the late Thomas Berthelet ')