

The description of the Holy Land, containing the places mentioned in the four Euangelists, with other places about the Sea Coasts, wherein may be seene the wayes and iourneyes of CHRIST and his Apostles in Iudea, Samaria, and Galile: for into these three parts this Land is diuided.

The Places specified in the Map, with their Situation by the Obseruation of their degrees concerning their length and breadth.

Alcalon	65,24: 31,32.	Gadara or Gazara	66,48: 32,29.
Azot	65,35: 32.	Gaza	65,10: 31,40.
Bethlehem	65,55: 31,51.	Iericho	66,10: 32,1.
Bethphage	68,31,58.	Ierusalem	66,31,55.
Bethfaida	66,51: 32,29.	Ioppe	65,40: 32,5.
Bethabara	66,34: 32,1.	Ior, the other fountaine whence Jordan springeth	67,31: 33,7.
Bethania	66,31,58.	Magdalon, called also Damanutha	66,48: 32,28.
Cana of Galile	66,52: 32,48.	Naim	66,35: 32,33.
Capernaum	66,53: 32,29.	Nazareth	66,56: 32,42.
Carmel mount	66,31: 32,50.	Ptolemais	66,50: 32,58.
Cesarea Straton	66,16: 32,25.	Samaria the citie	66,12: 32,19.
Cesarea Philippi	67,39: 33,5.	Sidon	67,15: 33,30.
Corasim	66,53: 32,29.	Silo	66,27: 32,19.
Dan, one of the fountaines whence Jordan springeth	67,25: 33,8.	Tyrus	67,33,20.
Ennon	66,40: 32,18.	Tiberias	66,44: 32,26.
Emmaus	65,54: 31,59.
Ephen	66,8,32.		